Ripon Grammar School

Helping shape the future since 1555

Meet the Sixth Form Team

Mr. Fell is Head of Sixth Form at Ripon Grammar School, where he has taught for 28 years. He is an English Teacher and a keen reader and gardener. He grew up in the sunshine of The Gambia in West Africa, and fell in love with North Yorkshire after moving here after university. He hates the cold and snakes! He has three children and a Golden Doodle who is obsessed with anything edible.

Mrs. Lyons is the Deputy Head of Sixth Form and is responsible for Friday Personal Development programme and also teaches French and German. She grew up in York but has also lived in London, Paris and Reims where she obtained her French diplôme, and still dreams about living in France again one day. She loves reading (and talking about) books, baking and running. She lives with her husband, son and Nike the cat.

Mrs. Nelson is also the Deputy Head of Sixth Form, Plus One Co-ordinator and is responsible for Sixth Form Societies. She has experience in Careers, teaching to A Level and has been an examiner. Mrs Nelson grew up in Harrogate but has lived in France and taught in London and York. She now lives on a farm with her husband, two children and various animals! She loves walking, cycling and baking.

Mrs. Feingold is the Sixth Form Co-ordinator, dealing with all things sixth form related. If you have any questions, she is the person to ask. She grew up in Durban, the east coast of South Africa, where she taught younger students for thirteen years. She loves taking photos, the snow, time with friends and can often be found alongside a sports field supporting her son or husband's various games and matches.

Headmaster: Mr. Jonathan M. Webb, MA (Cantab).
